ABOUT THE HOST (DIU)

About Association of the Universities of Asia and the Pacific (AUAP)

Association of the Universities of the Asia and the Pacific (AUAP) was established in Thailand in 1995 to act as a platform for interaction and collaboration by and between higher education institutions in the Asia and the Pacific regions. Its members include well-recognised and leading institutions in the region and globally. The board of directors of AUAP comprises the presidents and CEOs of the institutions, and it has an advisory board comprising globally recognised professionals in various fields including education, law, the UN System, health, business and others. It has a robust governance structure to oversee all aspects of its work. Since its founding, AUAP has been highly successful in promoting a culture of quality and innovation in education. Among other things, it organises various programs and projects in the field of teaching, research, innovation, diversity, gender equality, co-operation for socio-economic development, sports, and services that benefit local communities.

Dr. Peter P. Laurel, President, Lyceum of the Philippines University is the President where Dr. Md. Sabur Khan, Founder & Chairman, Daffodil International University is serving AUAP as First Vice President and Mr. Hari Mohan Gupta, Founder & Chancellor Jagran Lakecity University, India is serving AUAP as Second Vice President.

ABOUT DHAKA, BANGLADESH

Dhaka is the capital city of a South Asian country, Bangladesh. It is the hub of economic, political and administrative enterprises located in central Bangladesh at 23°42'N 90°22'E, on the eastern banks of the Buriganga River. It lies on the lower reaches of the Ganges Delta and covers a total area of 306.38 square kilometers (around 118.29 square miles). Historically, Dhaka was associated with the periods of Kamarupa kingdom, Sena kingdom, and Sultanate period, and was a part of Mughal Empire, Nawab era, British and Pakistani colonialism. The capital has a favorable climate characterized by tropical monsoon from June to October; mild winter from October to March; hot, humid summer from March to June. The demographic features of the city are varied in character. Dhaka (North and South) city corporations are the most populated urban areas with the highest density accommodating over 22 million people including Muslims, Hindus, Christians, Buddhists and others.
